

When Challenges Come Your Way

Job 42:1-5

We serve a great God and out of the ashes He wants to make you new.

What am I going to do now?

Job 42:1-5

The changes and hardship that Job experienced go right to the core of his faith in God and when he emerged he said “The Lord has tested me with fire but when I come through it I shall be a pure gold.”

“The Lord was responsible for my wealth. And now he has decided to take it from me Praise the name of the Lord”

I will trust in God.

God, Why!!!

Job says I know you are all powerful; that you created the earth. And I did not. I know you are able to control anything you want to and I cannot. And I know that if you have a plan, it cannot fail.

Are you frustrated with God's power,
God's presence and God's plan?

It is only when we yield completely to God that He is able to turn our bitterness into Joy.

Power is an illusion!

Security is found only in God.

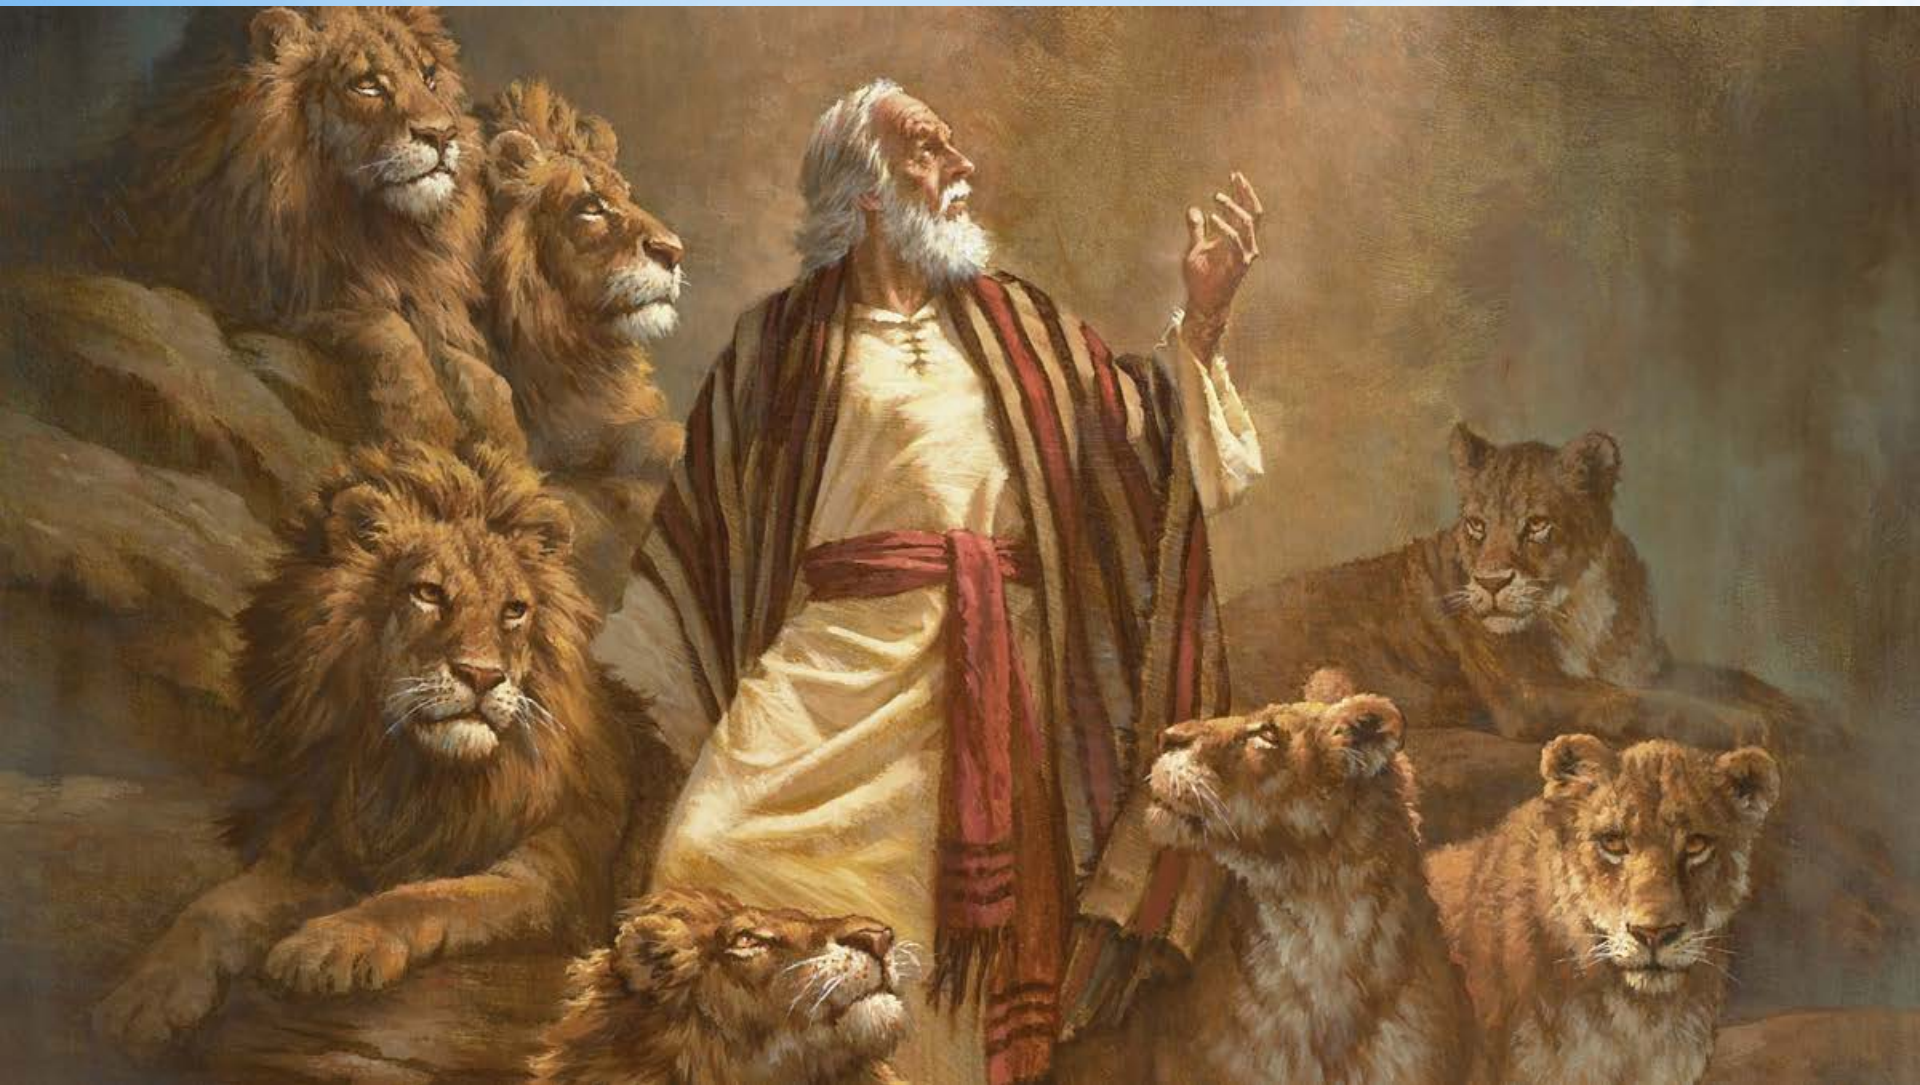

The background of the image is a vibrant blue sky filled with soft, white, fluffy clouds. In the upper right corner, bright sunbeams radiate outwards, creating a sense of light and hope. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and uplifting.

We need to release the wrong that was done in our lives. Trust God. Part of trusting God is releasing bitterness.

“I don’t know what’s next but I will trust God for it.”

The background of the image is a bright blue sky with soft, white clouds. Sunbeams are visible in the upper right corner, creating a radiant effect. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and hopeful.

My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you.

“What are you going to do now?”