

Walk by Faith, not by Sight.

2 Corinthians 5:6-17

“Pray that I have clarity.”

“What do you want me to pray for?”

“No, I will not do that. Clarity is the last thing you are clinging to and must let go of.”

“I have never had clarity; what I have always had is trust. So, I will pray that you trust God.”

Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. This is what the ancients were commended for. By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible. And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

(Hebrews 11.1-3, 6)

“When I understand, I will obey.”
(Show me and I will believe.)

Trust and Obey and I will show you.”
(Believe and I will show you.)

Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. ⁷ For we live by faith, not by sight. ⁸ We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹ So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

(2 Corinthians 5:6-10)

¹¹ Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord, we try to persuade others. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience. ¹² We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us, so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart. ¹³ If we are “out of our mind,” as some say, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

(2 Corinthians 5:11-13)

¹⁴ For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. ¹⁵ And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again. ¹⁶ So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. ¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

(2 Corinthians 5:14-17)

1. Faith is about Trust

"So we are always confident (Trust)..."

2. Faith is about Commitment

"So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him."

3. Faith is about Vision

"For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died."
